'SWEET' RHYTHM — Monies from cookie, cake, and food sales by parents financed the purchase of two new kettle drums to augment the rhythm section of the Torrance Area Youth Bands. Jackie Beeman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Beeman, tries his hand on the $565 tympani set. (Herald Photo).

Youth Band Will Use New Kettle Drums in Long Beach Concert

When the Torrance Area Youth Band plays their concert in Long Beach in March they will be using their newly acquired tympani for the first time in public, according to James Van Dyck, director.

The two copper-coated, pot-bellied kettle drums were recently purchased at a cost of $585 with monies derived from the sale of cakes, candies and pies. The sale was conducted largely by parents of the band members.

The March 14th concert will make the second time the band has been invited by the Long Beach Recreation Department to present a program in the Municipal Auditorium. Initial concert was presented last July.

Included on the program which calls for prominent tympani passages are:

"Cowboy Rhapsody" by Morton Gould, 4th movement to "New World Symphony" by Dvorak, "Perpetuum Mobile" by Strauss, and "Soldiers on Parade" by DeLuca.

3000 Hear Youth Band

Approximately 3000 persons heard the Torrance Area senior youth band at Long Beach Municipal auditorium Monday night, when several bands played as a preliminary to a weekly square dance event.

James Van Dyke, band director, said the band was invited to return and give another concert at a later date. The band made the trip in a special Torrance Municipal Bus.
